

Want to take your career to the next level?

We can help — with a fully forgivable loan designed to help you continue your education with less debt.

If you're a current administrative or clinical Bowen Center employee, Questa and Bowen Center are offering fully forgivable loan options for your postsecondary education, encouraging life-long learning.

Employees may receive up to $15,000 in loans that are 100% forgiven when the employee graduates from their academic program and continues to work at Bowen Center for four years after graduation. The first $5,000 in loan funding is 100% forgiven when the employee graduates from their academic program. The additional $10,000 in loan funding is 100% forgiven when the employee graduates and continues successful employment at Bowen Center for four years.

Administrative applications will be considered and awarded twice a year.

Deadlines are November 1 and June 1.

Clinical applications are open year-round.
