Funding for Women in Business

In partnership with
Yergens Rogers
Foundation

Questa Education Foundation, in partnership with the Yergens Rogers Foundation, is offering funding for women pursuing a degree in a business or business-related field including accounting, administration, finance, human resources, management, marketing, public relations, and others. High school seniors and college freshmen seeking college funding for the fall of 2023 are encouraged to apply to the Traditional Scholars Program December 1, 2022 through March 15, 2023. All other returning students and adult learners can apply through the Contemporary Scholars Program, open year-round.

Requirements:

- ▶ Resident of one of the 11 counties in Northeast Indiana (Adams, Allen, DeKalb, Huntington, Kosciusko, LaGrange, Noble, Steuben, Wabash, Wells, and Whitley).
- ▶ Planning on living and working in the region and working in Northeast Indiana for five years upon graduation.
- ▶ Identified gap in college funding (cost of attendance, less other scholarships and grants).
- ▶ Planning on pursuing or currently earning a degree in a business field.
